

Building Community Through Book Clubs Links & Information

Below are links to the resources BookBrowse publisher Davina Morgan-Witts references in her webinar, and information about BookBrowse for Libraries.

“Building Community Through Book Clubs”: Links

1. The link between discussion length and happy book clubs: <https://bookbrowse.com/hbc>
2. The Book Club Health Check: <https://bookbrowse.com/hbc>
3. Picking books: <https://bookbrowse.com/pick>
4. Interview with Darien Public Library about their book clubs: <https://bookbrowse.com/dbc>
5. King’s Books, Tacoma, WA: <https://kingsbookstore.com/bookclubs>
6. Book club advice on BookBrowse (inc. posts on our research: <https://bookbrowse.com/bca>)
7. About BookBrowse’s research reports: <https://bookbrowse.com/wp> including Publishers Weekly articles that summarize the key findings. You can download “Book Clubs in Lockdown” for free. “The Inner Lives of Book Clubs” is available in PDF for $12, and for a little more in print from booksellers (with a discount via Ingram); a good addition to your reference section.

About BookBrowse for Libraries

BookBrowse is a highly curated book discovery resource focusing on the best in contemporary fiction and nonfiction, perfect for book club members and those who read to expand their horizons.

Some content is available for free, but full access is only for individual members and staff/patrons of libraries that subscribe to BookBrowse for Libraries; its award-winning, reader-focused and user-friendly readers' advisory resource.

Subscriptions include:

- RPA and in-library access to all of BookBrowse’s book discovery resources including reviews and articles; handpicked read-alikes; search and filter by genre, time period, location and theme; notable books publishing soon; resources for book clubs including thousands of reading guides and book discussions; online magazine and free newsletter; author pronunciations; and more.
- apps for library website (such as searching for read-alikes).
- website branded for library with links from each book page to relevant OPAC result.
- free print materials and an ever-increasing range of web graphics.
- free support for patrons and staff, and monthly stats.

About BookBrowse for Libraries including feature list, resources etc. Brochure (PDF)

Contact BookBrowse for Information and Quotes

- Contact BookBrowse: <https://bookbrowse.com/lib/contact>
- Call: 408-867-6500 or 1-800-745-5306 x 103 (toll free 48 States and Canada)